WELCOME

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church is an epicenter of Catholic activity. Within our parish boundaries there are numerous Catholic enterprises and educational institutions. From these organizations a strong Catholic community developed around St. John's. Many of our parishioners have moved to the Front Royal area specifically for the Catholic kinship and to raise their families in a supportive Catholic atmosphere. The fruit of this robust Christian hamlet is a vibrant, active, devout and growing Catholic population and many religious vocations. St. John's often has the largest number of seminarians and sisters in formation than any other parish in the Diocese.

St. John's currently has 5 priests, 2 permanent Deacons, 25 Masses per week, 12 weekly confession times, 1959 registered households and 5880 individual parishioners!

We encourage you to become an active member of our parish by sharing your gifts, talent and prayer for the good of your neighbor and for the Glory of God.

"As generous stewards of God's manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another."

1 Peter 4:8-10"

Parish History

The origins of St. John's Church

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church is unique in that it was built as one of the very few "memorial" Catholic churches in the United States dedicated to an individual. That individual is a man named John Carrell Jenkins. The Jenkins family history is traced back to some of the earliest Catholic pioneers to come to America in the 1600's.

John "Carrell" Jenkins was born on June 14, 1834 in Baltimore, Maryland. Described by family as "easy in manner and gentle in voice...generous to a fault, especially to those in distress; ever ready to defend the unfortunate or to repel an unkind word."

As a young man in his 20's Carrell joined the prestigious Maryland Guard to help quell the violence and protect certain parts of Baltimore. Locally and nationally the unrest came to a head in 1861. Carrell was caught up in America's Civil War for only four months before contracting typhoid fever. On the morning of October 11, 1861, John Carrell Jenkins passed away in Warm Springs, Virginia.

Approximately 20 years later, the Jenkins family requested that a chapel be built somewhere in western VA in memory of Carrell. The request was granted by Bishop John Keane of Richmond and the corner stone was laid on October 7, 1883 in Front Royal, Virginia. The Jenkins family paid for the entire church to be built and provided the pews, bell, altar, sacred vessels and vestments. Some of these items are still in use at St. John's Church today.

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church was dedicated on September 7, 1884. A marble tablet was placed on the wall of the Church where it remains today, reading:

*Pray for the Soul of John Carrell Jenkins
Died October 11, 1861
Out of Whose means Principally this Church has been Erected*

Mission Church then Parish

For over 50 years, St. John's was a mission church with priests from Winchester coming once a month to administer the sacraments and celebrate Mass. On July 6, 1940, St. John's was designated as a parish, with its first pastor being Fr. Martin T. Quinn.

On June 24, 1998, a new larger church was dedicated next to the original, under the pastor Fr. William Ruehl. The original church was designated part of the Front Royal Historical District in 2003 and listed on the National Register of Historic Places. A renovation of the original church was undertaken in 2006-2007 and it continues to serve as an Adoration Chapel to this day.

As the number of Catholic Hispanics in our area began to grow, the need for a Spanish Mass and Catholic fellowship became apparent. In 2008, St. John's began a weekly Sunday Mass in Spanish. The community has been growing ever since and we currently serve approximately 300 Hispanic families.
