Mission Appeal

Next weekend, July 29/30, our second collection supports the annual Mission Cooperative Plan Appeal for our diocese. Our parish mission organization is Society of the Catholic Apostolate (Irish Pallottine Fathers). This appeal helps our brothers and sisters who do not have access to basic pastoral services that support and grow their faith, such as Mass, the sacraments, religious education as well as basic needs like food, shelter and healthcare. You can support these organizations through next week's 2nd collection. If donating by check, please make your check payable to St. John's Church and put "MCP" in the memo line. Through your support, the MCP Appeal helps these mission organizations form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the global Church. Please be generous—your gifts and prayers will be a blessing to families who benefit from this loving outreach in mission countries. If you would like to learn more about their ministry go to www.arlingtonmissions.org/mission/society-of-the-catholic-apostolate-irish-pallottine-fathers.

Darryl & Susan Adams, RE Assistants

Save the date! Bishop Burbidge will visit us on Saturday, September 23, at 10:00am, to celebrate Holy Mass and confirm our parish's confirmation candidates. Rehearsal will be on Tues, Sept 19, 5:30pm.

In view of our upcoming Confirmation, let us continue to review the CCC this Sacrament (part 3):

“In treating the rite of Confirmation, it is fitting to consider the sign of anointing and what it signifies and imprints: a spiritual seal. Anointing, in Biblical and other ancient symbolism, is rich in meaning: oil is a sign of abundance and joy; it cleanses (anointing before and after a bath) and limbers (the anointing of athletes and wrestlers); oil is a sign of healing, since it is soothing to bruises and wounds; and it makes radiant with beauty, health, and strength.

“Anointing with oil has all these meanings in the sacramental life. The pre-baptismal anointing with the oil of catechumens signifies cleansing and strengthening; the anointing of the sick expresses healing and comfort. The post-baptismal anointing with sacred chrism in Confirmation and ordination is the sign of consecration. By Confirmation Christians, that is, those who are anointed, share more completely in the mission of Jesus Christ and the fullness of the Holy Spirit with which he is filled, so that their lives may give off ‘the aroma of Christ.’

“By this anointing the confirmand receives the ‘mark,’ the seal of the Holy Spirit. A seal is a symbol of a person, a sign of personal authority, or ownership of an object. Hence soldiers were marked with their leader’s seal and slaves with their master’s. A seal authenticates a juridical act or document and occasionally makes it secret.

“Christ himself declared that he was marked with his Father’s seal. Christians are also marked with a seal: ‘It is God who establishes us with you in Christ and has commissioned us; he has put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.’ This seal of the Holy Spirit marks our total belonging to Christ, our enrollment in his service for ever, as well as the promise of divine protection in the great eschatological trial.” (CCC 1293-1296)

VOCATIONS

“I know well the plans I have in mind for you... to give you a future full of hope.” Jer 29:11-15

A discernment retreat is a prayerful visit with a religious community, perhaps for a weekend or even a week.

Such a retreat is a good way to test your vocation.

You can get to know the community, its charism, and find whether God may be calling you to its way of life.

<https://religiouslife.com/discernment-retreats>

There are three things we need to do in order to give our heart to Jesus:

A – Acknowledge sin which separates us from God.

C – Confess our sin.

T – Trust in Jesus by faith to save us.

“The Spirit too helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought.” Do you approach the Lord in prayer with the confident strength given by the Holy Spirit asking that He make known your unique vocation? If God may be inviting you to consider the priesthood or consecrated life, contact Fr. Michael Isenberg, Vocations Director, at (703) 841-2514 or email: vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.
