Mission Appeal

Today's second collection supports the annual Mission Cooperative Plan Appeal for our diocese. Our parish mission organization is Society of the Catholic Apostolate (Irish Pallottine Fathers). This appeal helps our brothers and sisters who do not have access to basic pastoral services that support and grow their faith, such as Mass, the sacraments, religious education as well as basic needs like food, shelter and healthcare. You can support these organizations through next week's 2nd collection. If donating by check, please make your check payable to St. John's Church and put "MCP" in the memo line. Through your support, the MCP Appeal helps these mission organizations form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the global Church. Please be generous - your gifts and prayers will be a blessing to families who benefit from this loving outreach in mission countries. If you would like to learn more about their ministry go to www.arlingtonmissions.org/mission/society-of-the-catholic-apostolate-irish-pallottine-fathers.

FROM THE OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

David M Wallace, Director | dwallace@sjtb.org | (540) 635-3780 ext 202

Darryl & Susan Adams, RE Assistants

Save the date! Bishop Burbidge will visit us on Saturday, September 23, at 10:30am, to celebrate Holy Mass and confirm our parish's confirmation candidates. Rehearsal will be on Tues, Sept 19, 5:30pm. Parents of confirmandi should have received an important email about Confirmation. If you didn't receive it, please contact David: dwallace@sjtb.org.

In view of our upcoming Confirmation, let us continue to review the CCC this Sacrament (part 4):

“The consecration of the sacred chrism is an important action that precedes the celebration of Confirmation, but is in a certain way a part of it. It is the bishop who, in the course of the Chrism Mass of Holy Thursday, consecrates the sacred chrism for his whole diocese. In some Eastern Churches this consecration is even reserved to the patriarch: The liturgy of Antioch expresses the epiclesis for the consecration of the sacred chrism (myron) in this way: ‘[Father . . . send your Holy Spirit] on us and on this oil which is before us and consecrate it, so that it may be for all who are anointed and marked with it holy myron, priestly myron, royal myron, anointing with gladness, clothing with light, a cloak of salvation, a spiritual gift, the sanctification of souls and bodies, imperishable happiness, the indelible seal, a buckler of faith, and a fearsome helmet against all the works of the adversary.’

“When Confirmation is celebrated separately from Baptism, as is the case in the Roman Rite, the Liturgy of Confirmation begins with the renewal of baptismal promises and the profession of faith by the confirmands. This clearly shows that Confirmation follows Baptism. When adults are baptized, they immediately receive Confirmation and participate in the Eucharist.

“In the Roman Rite the bishop extends his hands over the whole group of the confirmands. Since the time of the apostles this gesture has signified the gift of the Spirit. The bishop invokes the outpouring of the Spirit in these words: ‘All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord.’

“The essential rite of the sacrament follows. In the Latin rite, ‘the sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with chrism on the forehead, which is done by the laying on of the hand, and through the words: Accipe signaculum doni Spiritus Sancti [Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.].’ In the Eastern Churches of Byzantine rite, after a prayer of epiclesis, the more significant parts of the body are anointed with myron: forehead, eyes, nose, ears, lips, chest, back, hands, and feet. Each anointing is accompanied by the formula, the seal of the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The Flame of Love, A New Church Approved Devotion

Mondays after the noon Mass

Our Lady's promise to Elizabeth Kindelmann of Hungary:

"By my Flame of Love, a new era of grace, never before known on the earth, will begin."

The Flame of Love is an extraordinary grace which comes from Mary's Immaculate Heart to us at this time in history. You are invited to pray the Flame of Love rosary on Mondays after the noon mass. Jesus said, "Because of the Holy Virgin's efficacious pleas, the Most Blessed Trinity granted the outpouring of the Flame of Love...."

From the approved Diary of Elizabeth Kindelmann:

Jesus: "The face of the earth will be renewed because something like this has not happened since the Word became Flesh."
Mary: "With my Flame of Love I want the home to come alive again with love. I want to unite scattered families."

Jesus: "When I encounter one holy person, I pardon many."

Mary: "I do not want one soul condemned.... That is why I place this beam of light, the Flame of Love, in your hands."

Jesus: "Through this prayer (the Unity Prayer), Satan will be blind and souls will not be led into sin."

This Week's Saints...

"Society will again someday become Christian won to Jesus Christ by the apostolate of Eucharistic Prayer."
 -St. Peter Julian Eymard

DIVINE MERCY SAID:

"...In the Host is your power; it will defend you. After these words the Vision disappeared, but a strange power entered my soul, and a strange light as to what our love for God consists in; namely, in doing His will."
