FROM THE OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

David M Wallace, Director | dwallace@sjtb.org | (540) 635-3780 ext 202

Darryl & Susan Adams, RE Assistants

Save the date! Bishop Burbidge will visit us on Saturday, September 23, at 10:30am, to celebrate Holy Mass and confirm our parish's confirmation candidates. Rehearsal will be on Tues, Sept 19, 5:30pm. The Confirmation retreat for all confirmandi (those to be confirmed at the Sept 23 Confirmation Mass) will be on Saturday, September 16, from the 8:30am Mass until 12:00pm.

In light of the Labor Day Holiday, we take an excerpt from chapter six on Human Work of the Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church: “In his preaching, Jesus teaches that we should appreciate work. He himself, having ‘become like us in all things, devoted most of the years of his life on earth to manual work at the carpenter’s bench’ in the workshop of Joseph (cf. Mt 13:55; Mk6:3), to whom he was obedient (cf. Lk 2:51). Jesus condemns the behaviour of the useless servant, who hides his talent in the ground (cf. Mt 25:14-30) and praises the faithful and prudent servant whom the Master finds hard at work at the duties entrusted to him (cf. Mt 24:46). He describes his own mission as that of working: ‘My Father is working still, and I am working’ (Jn 5:17), and his disciples as workers in the harvest of the Lord, which is the evangelization of humanity (cf. Mt 9:37-38). For these workers, the general principle according to which ‘the labourer deserves his wages’ (Lk 10:7) applies. They are therefore authorized to remain in the houses in which they have been welcomed, eating and drinking what is offered to them (cf. Lk 10:7).’ [...] “Work represents a fundamental dimension of human existence as participation not only in the act of creation but also in that of redemption. Those who put up with the difficult rigours of work in union with Jesus cooperate, in a certain sense, with the Son of God in his work of redemption and show that they are disciples of Christ bearing his cross, every day, in the activity they are called to do. In this perspective, work can be considered a means of sanctification and an enlivening of earthly realities with the Spirit of Christ. Understood in this way, work is an expression of man’s full humanity, in his historical condition and his eschatological orientation. Man’s free and responsible action reveals his intimate relationship with the Creator and his creative power. At the same time, it is a daily aid in combating the disfigurement of sin, even when it is by the sweat of his brow that man earns his bread.”

Catholic Biblical School Starts September 12!

It's time to register for the Catholic Biblical School! All adults are welcome to attend classes even if they were unable to join last year. The Life of Christ and the Epistles of St. Paul (Year 2) is on Tuesdays at 7pm. Classes are available in person and online. New and returning students can register for classes at the Biblical School website (www.CatholicBiblicalSchoolVA.org). Remember St. Jerome's famous quote: “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” You will enjoy going deeper into Scripture like never before with the Biblical School!

VOCATIONS

Be nothing solicitous; but in every thing, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God...whatsoever things are true...modest...just...holy...lovely...of good fame, if there be any virtue... praise of discipline, think on these things. Phil 4:6-8

Paul enumerates precepts of morality to be practiced in our vocation:

True – in words, promises, lawful oaths command rectitude of mind and sincerity of heart

Modest – gravity in manner, modesty in dress, decency in conversation

Just – be fair and honest in dealing with others, buying, selling, trade, and business

Holy – professed religious life of sanctity and chastity by vow, laity by divine commandments

Lovely – practice good offices in society that procure esteem and good will of neighbors

Of good fame – conduct and behavior should edify neighbors and give good example by actions

Virtue/discipline – those in error seeing morality and good discipline of true religion, may be converted

Think on these things – make it your study and concern that the peace of God might be with you.

“What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?”

Are you being called to be a priest or deacon, brother or sister? Contact Fr. Michael Isenberg, Vocations Director at (703) 841-2514 or vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.

THIRD ANNUAL ST. JOHN'S LOCAL CANDIDATES FORUM, SEP 15TH at 7:00 PM

Candidates running for Warren County sheriff, the School Board, and the Board of Supervisors have been invited to a Candidates' Forum to be held in Father Reuhl Hall on Friday, September 15th from 7:00 to 9:00 PM.

Those invited are candidates for sheriff, Mark Butler and Crystal Cline; candidates to represent the South River District on the School Board, Kristen Pence and Leslie Mathews; candidates to represent the Shenandoah District on the Board of Supervisors, Walter Mabe and John Stanmeyer. In the invitation the candidates were told that "St. John's may be the largest faith community in Warren County and we are asking you to honor us by fitting it into your campaign schedule." The purpose of the Forum which is open to the public is to give voters the opportunity to meet and hear from those running for office in November.

Candidates will have the opportunity to tell us about themselves and our moderator will ask them to reply to some questions relevant to the office they are seeking and of some of particular interest to the conservative Christian community. This is a unique opportunity for St. John's voters to show we care about Warren County's culture.

DIVINE MERCY SAID:

"I am giving you three ways of exercising mercy toward your neighbor: the first--by deed, the second---by word, the third--by prayer. In these three degrees is contained the fullness of mercy and it is an unquestionable proof of the fullness of mercy, and it is an unquestionable proof of love for Me. By this means a soul glorifies and pays reverence to My mercy...By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works." (St. Faustina Diary, 742)
