Saints of the Week

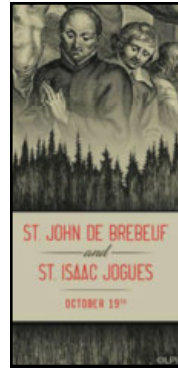

When we accept what happens to us and make the best of it, we are praising God.

Teresa of Avila

As soon as he saw himself captured, Rene said to me: "O my father, God be blessed; He has permitted it, He has willed it - His holy will be done. I love it, I desire it, I cherish it, I embrace it with all the strength of my heart."

-St Isaac Jogues writing about St Rene Goupil, the first of the North American Martyrs

"Build an oratory within yourself, and there have Jesus on the altar of your heart. Speak to Him often while you are doing your work. Speak to Him of His holy love, of His holy sufferings and of the sorrows of most holy Mary"

-St Paul of the Cross writing a reply to a busy married woman who felt she couldn't find enough time to pray.

VOCATIONS

Go courageously to God, along the way He has traced out for you, steadfastly embracing the means He offers you.

-St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

Our vocation is God calling us to live our lives for Him in a particular way. Everyone has a vocation to holiness, but each individual has a particular vocation.

A path that leads them to holiness the fastest.

To discern your vocation means to walk with God, listen for His voice, and unfold His plan with Him.

Discernment doesn't mean knowing everything before it happens. In fact, it means admitting you don't really know what is about to happen.

When the Holy Spirit descended upon a group of terrified men in first century Jerusalem, those men came alive with zeal for the Lord. They left the room and walked brazenly into the open, preaching Jesus's name. They went to the Temple daily to preach, knowing Jesus had been killed for the exact same thing.

They prayed and then took action.

"Many are called, but few are chosen."

Consider following Christ more closely as a priest, deacon or in consecrated life.

"The soul's true greatness is in loving God and in humbling oneself in His presence, completely forgetting oneself and believing oneself to be nothing, because the Lord is great, but He is well – pleased with the humble. He always opposes the proud."
