ADVENT

Beginning the Church's liturgical year, Advent (from, "ad-venire" in Latin or "to come to") is the season encompassing the four Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the celebration of Christmas.

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. From the earliest days of the Church, people have been fascinated by Jesus' promise to come back. But the scripture readings during Advent tell us not to waste our time with predictions. Advent is not about speculation. Our Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36). Like Lent, the liturgical color for Advent is purple since both are seasons that prepare us for great feast days. Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas. ~USCCB

Bishop Burbidge's Catechesis on The Human Person and Gender Ideology

In light of the recent document from the Vatican on receiving a person with gender dysphoria to be baptized or be a godparent, it's important to realize what the document actually says. In essence, a person suffering from the mental illness of gender dysphoria who agrees with the Church teaching can be baptized or be a godparent as long as the normal conditions exist, including that the person "leads a life in harmony with the faith." (Can 874) In his letter on The Human Person and Gender Ideology, Bishop Burbidge also reminds us that the false "transgender" teaching is to be rejected. Voluntary support of a person, government, or institution that openly promotes such false teaching is an action not in accord with the Church's teaching. There are more copies of the Bishop's letter available in the vestibule.

2023 Parish Directories

The new Parish Directories are available for pick up at the parish office for those who had their photo taken or submitted. Thank you to all who participated in the making of the Directory, whether by having a photo taken or by volunteering in any way.

VOCATIONS

“Like a man away on a journey, he assigns each of us a task; be on the alert.”

Being chosen to serve as a priest or religious is an amazing work of the Lord. Ask the Holy Spirit and our Blessed Mother to help you recognize and be faithful to your vocation.

Contact Fr. Michael Isenberg, Vocations Director, at (703) 841-2514 or email: vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.

Advent Days of Recollection for Discerners Dec. 16 and 17

Could Christ be calling you to the priesthood or religious life?

Take a step to find out and enjoy some quiet prayer time this Advent.

Men's Day of Recollection is Saturday, December 16, with diocesan seminarians and priests;

the Women's Day of Recollection is Sunday, December 17

with the Franciscan Sisters of the Eucharist.

These events are for those 18-35 years old interested in deepening their prayer life and exploring their vocation. For more information and to register contact the Office of Vocations, 703-841-2514 or vocations@arlingtondiocese.org.

Deadline to register is Monday, December 11.

There are moments in life of special importance, such as when the Lord shows us the way to be followed and then leaves it up to our free will to respond. – Blessed Margarita De Maturana

Vigilance is essential to the Christian life. The Church thrives under persecution when she sees her purpose more clearly and more perfectly resembles her Spouse. Ease, comfort and complacency threaten the Christian life because they breed a spiritual stupor, a dullness of soul and a forgetfulness of the Lord's return. Exercise intellectual vigilance, seek out media that trains our thinking in keeping with the mind of the Church.

Maintain vigilance of the heart; because we love Christ, we remain wide-awake “waiting in joyful hope” for His return. Consider the vigilance needed in marriage. If the spouses do not guard their hearts, their mutual affection will soon be lost. Divorce and infidelity occur when one or both of the spouses fail to keep the heart vigilant for the other.

In the same way, Christ's Bride must guard her heart and daily renew her devotion to Him. Just as spouses must remain vigilant, so also must the consecrated soul guard his/her heart so that nothing and no one damages or robs his/her love for Christ. This is done most of all through a healthy prayer life – through vigilance of prayer. Christ calls us to remain wide awake at midnight or before sunrise - that is, to pray even when it becomes difficult, inconvenient or boring.

We choose vigilance instead of comfort, so that at Christ's return we may find ourselves seated at His table and Him waiting on us.

St. John's Youth Advent Retreat

This year's Advent Youth Retreat is happening on Friday, Dec. 8th, beginning with 5:00pm Holy Day Mass for the Solemn Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Immediately following Mass, we will spend time with Christ in a holy hour, including a practical spiritual talk, personal prayer, and opportunity for confession. The retreat will conclude with dinner with meat for the feast day, and a brief period of clean up. Departure no later than 8:30pm.

Please rsvp to:

Gwendolyn.grundman@gmail.com. (We will need an accurate number to provide everyone with a meal so an rsvp is essential.)

The Giving Tree

As you prepare for Christmas, include a Gift from the "Giving Tree" to assist those in need. Please take a gift tag ornament from the tree in the vestibule, purchase the gift or gifts and put them with the gift tag included under the tree in the gathering area or bring them to the church office by Sunday, December 10th. Please bring larger gifts to the church office. Do not take a gift tag unless you intend to purchase the gift or gift card. If you have any questions, call the office at 635-3780.

Christmas Gift Cards

We are collecting Martins and Walmart gift cards for our Christmas outreach. Each year we assist local families in need with providing their holiday meals. Gift cards (or monetary donations) may be dropped off at the church office or in the collection basket in an envelope labeled "Christmas". Thank you!

John Carrell Jenkins Council #7771
www.kofc7771.org

Join the Knights! The Knights of Columbus John Carrell Jenkins Council 7771 here at St. John The Baptist is more than 200 members strong. Our common bond is our devotion to the Catholic Faith and our brotherhood in Christ. We have joined together to help one another become better Catholics, better husbands, better fathers, better providers for the financial protection of our families and better citizens here in Front Royal. Contact Grand Knight John Stieb at 703-755-5345, or Council Membership Chairman Leo Carling at 540-631-7555 for more information.

Firewood Project: The Council helps parishioners who rely on firewood to heat their homes. If you would like to help or if you know of a parishioner in need, please contact Leo Carling (540-631-7555).

Annual Dues: Darryl Adams, Financial Secretary for John Carrell Jenkins Council 7771, in mid-December will be sending out 2024 dues announcements via email. Please ensure that your email address with the Knights is accurate. Timely payment of your annual dues is appreciated (and saves the council from lengthy efforts to obtain payment).

Council Membership Meetings: Second Wednesday of the month, Padre Pio Hall. Dinner and Fellowship, 6:30pm, Rosary at 7:10pm, Meeting at 7:30pm. Meetings typically adjourn by 8:30/8:45pm.
