VOCATION REFLECTION

We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, in a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another.
– St Teresa of Calcutta

One day someone came to Jesus and asked him, "Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law? Jesus said to him, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22: 36 – 39) This my dear friends is vocation. When we get vocation right, everything else will fall in line. This is very parallel to the scripture passage that says, 'seek first the kingdom of heaven and everything else will fall in line' (Matthew 6:33). When we are open to God's purpose for our lives, which is our vocation, then we are seeking to do God's will. When we seek to do God's will, blessings will always flow.
