Opportunities for Lenten Almsgiving at St. John's

Care Packages for the Homeless:

A good Lenten project for families! The HARTS thermal shelter will be closing for the season after Easter. St. John's Outreach Committee will be delivering care packages (large zip lock bags filled with basic items) to the shelter for the homeless individuals who have been staying there during the winter months. Please stop by the table after Mass today to find out more information or to pick up a zip lock bag and a list of suggested items to include. Filled "Mercy Bags" can be dropped off in the narthex next weekend March 16-17. Extra bags will be given to Social Services. Consider keeping a prepared bag in the car/home to hand out to someone in need.

Gift Cards for "Easter Baskets"

We are collecting Martins, Aldi and Walmart gift cards to be given to those in need to assist with their Easter Dinner/Food. St. John's is able to help over 50 families in and outside the parish each holiday thanks to your generosity. Please put gift cards or a check marked "Easter Baskets" in the collection or drop them off at the parish office. Thank you!

2024 Bishops Lenten Appeal

Second Collection, March 16-17: CETA Catholic Education Tuition Assistance

Next Weekend

The St John the Baptist Knights of Columbus Council 7771, under the guidance of our Pastor, Father Gee, has founded the Catholic Education Tuition Assistance (CETA) fund to provide tuition assistance to parishioners with school age children in one of our eight, in-person parish schools. (Parishioners with school age children in public schools who wish their children to attend one of our in-person parish schools are also eligible to apply.) As these eight schools are not affiliated with Arlington's Diocesan Office of Catholic Schools and its Diocesan Scholarship Foundation, their students are ineligible to receive its tuition assistance. The CETA endowment seeks to bridge this gap and provide the needed financial support to parents whose children attend our local, in-person Catholic schools.

The CETA endowment will be funded by individual contributions, bequests, organizational donations as well as parish collections. One such collection will take place on the weekend of March 16-17, with the second collection on those days exclusively for the benefit of the CETA endowment. All funds collected will be used for tuition assistance, and monies will be paid directly to one of the eight schools on behalf of an individual child. Families will complete an application and the CETA committee will select individuals based on predetermined criteria. Information brochures and applications will be available after all Masses on the 16th and 17th. Feel free to reach out to a CETA committee member identified in the brochure with additional questions and concerns. Please pray for the success of this worthy initiative, and we thank you for your generosity.

Vocation Awareness

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

"May the road rise to meet you" is an Irish blessing that has been passed down through generations. It is a traditional way of wishing someone good luck and fortune on their vocation through life. This blessing has a simple yet powerful message that has resonated with people all over the world.

Bearing its roots in Ireland, the prayer has three main images, namely wind, sun, and rain. The Irishman's deep connection to nature and Ireland's ever-changing elements shine through.

The reference to the wind is thought to be the Holy Spirit, who came as a "mighty wind" at Pentecost.

The sun's warmth alludes to God's mercy "by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven."

The mention of rain is symbolic of God's provision – nothing will grow without rain.

In Irish, the first line "Go n-éirí an bóthar leat" is more literally usually translated as "May you succeed on the road."
