Happy Birthday to the Catholic Church!

Since that day (Pentecost), the Kingdom announced by Christ has been open to those who believe in him: in the humility of the flesh and in faith, they already share in the communion of the Holy Trinity. By his coming, which never ceases, the Holy Spirit causes the world to enter into the "last days," the time of the Church, the Kingdom already inherited though not yet consummated. CCC 731-732

God Bless You, Deacon Goldsmith!

Deacon Goldsmith is retiring after many years of dedicated service as a deacon. We are so grateful for his vocation and his joyful presence here at St. John's! All are invited to a retirement party for Deacon at 1:30pm on Sunday June 2 in Fr Ruehl Hall.

Vocation Awareness

What is the soul of holiness...it means:

- never leaving a Sunday without an encounter with the Risen Christ in the Eucharist; this is not an additional burden but is light for the whole week.
- never beginning and never ending a day without at least a brief contact with God. And,
- on the path of our life, following the "signposts" that God has communicated to us in the Ten Commandments, interpreted with Christ, which are merely the explanation of what love is in specific situations.

I would like to ask all to open themselves to the action of the Holy Spirit, who transforms our life, to be, we too, as small pieces in the great mosaic of holiness that God continues to create in history, so that the face of Christ may shine out in the fullness of its splendour. Let us not be afraid to aim high, for God's heights; let us not be afraid that God will ask too much of us, but let ourselves be guided by his Word in every daily action, even when we feel poor, inadequate, sinners. It will be he who transforms us in accordance with his love.

-Pope Benedict XVI, Audience
