~St. Teresa of Avila

Vocation Awareness

Christians reply that all these human activities, which are daily endangered by pride and inordinate self-love, must be purified and perfected by the Cross and Resurrection of Christ. Redeemed by Christ and made a new creature by the Holy Spirit, man can, indeed he must, love the things of God’s creation.

Therefore the world...is the whole human family seen in the context of everything which envelops it: it is the world as the theater of human history, bearing the marks of its travail, its triumphs and failures, the world, which in the Christian vision has been created and is sustained by the love of its maker, which has been freed from the slavery of sin by Christ, who was crucified and rose again in order to break the stranglehold of the evil one, so that it might be fashioned anew according to God’s design and brought to its fulfillment.

-Gaudium et Spes

Cross, Resurrection, and Paschal Mystery...all three point to the same thing: Redemption.

If Redemption marks the divine limit placed upon evil, it is for this reason only: because thereby evil is radically overcome by good, hate by love, death by resurrection.

-Pope John Paul II, Memory and Identity

National Eucharistic Revival!

The National Eucharistic Revival movement is the joyful, expectant, grassroots response of the Church in the United States to the divine invitation to be united once again around the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist.

www.eucharisticrevival.org

As the National Eucharistic Congress draws to a close, let's pray for the 4 primary goals of the Revival:

- 1 To provide a more profound encounter with Jesus Christ in the Sunday liturgy as a point of unity among all Catholics, and through this powerful encounter, find personal healing and courage to take the Gospel to a world in need of authentic love – the love of Christ found in the Eucharist.
- 2 To spark personal conversions through the joyful discovery of a relationship with Christ by encountering the love of God present in Jesus in the Eucharist.
- 3 To elevate the truth and practices of our Catholic faith through the rediscovery of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist – the source and summit of our Church and of who we are as a people of God.
- 4 To form, inspire, and launch missionary disciples, filled with love of God and neighbor that comes from an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist, to the margins of the Church and the world.

DIVINE MERCY
 SAID:

"...In the Host is your power; it will defend you. After these words the Vision disappeared, but a strange power entered my soul, and a strange light as to what our love for God consists in; namely, in doing His will."
 (St. Faustina Diary 616)
"Used with permission of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the B.V.M."

A BIG THANK YOU!

The results are in, and Fight Night! was a resounding success, raising $1,294 for the Catholic Education Tuition Assistance (CETA) fund. Thanks to all Council members who assisted, especially Jonathan Lash, who organized the concession service for the evening. A special shout out goes to Joe McFadden at Battleground Fitness, who hosted the event and took a few punches for the cause! Appreciation also goes to Castiglia's Italian Restaurant which donated 10 pizzas and Rappahanock Cellars which donated a case of wine for the raffle. Thanks to all!

New Alcoholics Anonymous Meeting at St. John's

There is now an Open meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous that meets every Friday evening from 8-9 pm in Padre Pio Hall.

It is an "Open" meeting which means anyone who wonders if they may have an issue related to drinking is welcome to attend. It is the revival of an old Meeting at St. John's that met at the same time many years ago and was a centerpiece of recovery for many people. It is being started by members of St. John's already in recovery in the hope of being able to bring the message to those who need it.

It is, however, an ANONYMOUS meeting meaning:

Who you see there, What you hear there, when you leave there, let it stay there.
