Martyrdom of St. John the Baptist

This week, on Thursday, August 29, we celebrate our patronal feast of the Passion of St. John the Baptist. "Dear brothers and sisters, celebrating the martyrdom of St John the Baptist reminds us, too, Christians of this time, that with love for Christ, for His words and for the Truth, we cannot stoop to compromises. The Truth is Truth; there are no compromises. Christian life demands, so to speak, the "martyrdom" of daily fidelity to the Gospel, the courage, that is, to let Christ grow within us and let him be the One who guides our thought and our actions."
~ Pope Benedict XVI

*Thank you to all who generously sent many blessings my way by offering Masses, rosaries, holy hours, cards and gifts. I was sincerely touched by your kindness. As I go through this next chapter in life, I will fondly remember my wonderful years at St. John's, the friends who have come into my life and especially the pastors who have made me the person I am today. Special thanks to Fr. William Ruehl, Fr. Edward Hathaway, Fr. Jerome Fasano, and Fr. Daniel Gee. I send my prayers to you all and ask that you keep me in yours.
With gratefulness to God for the opportunity, Patty*

Vocation Awareness

On 26 August we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Czestochowa which commemorates the famous icon of Our Lady that, according to legend, was painted by St. Luke at the house of the Holy Family. The icon ended up in Constantinople due to the efforts of St. Helena, and then was brought to Poland before the fall of Constantinople in the 15th century. In 1979, Saint John Paul II traveled to Jasna Gora and reminded the Poles to consecrate "everything through Mary."

Poland sees its history through the lens of Providence and the dynamics of the Faith. Dedication to Mary begins in the home, especially through daily recitation of the Rosary and simple acts of consecration to Mary at a young age. Religious vocations flourish in such a culture because life is interpreted as being from and for God, encouraging the youth to make Mary's "fiat" an integral part of their lives. The vow of consecration and the vow of marriage are seen as participations in Mary's way of life who is both Virgin and Spouse. Each day we should pray through Mary for vocations, and we should look to Our Lady of Czestochowa for help and guidance.

St. John's Food Pantry

Open Wednesdays 5 - 7pm

Location: basement of Padre Pio Hall (back door) — If you or someone you know is in need of food assistance, please stop by during open hours. If you would like to volunteer please contact outreach@sjtb.org

DIVINE MERCY SAID:

"Write this: before I come as the Just Judge, I am coming first as the King of Mercy. Before the day of justice arrives, there will be given to people a sign in the heavens of this sort: All light in the heavens will be extinguished, and there will be great darkness over the whole earth. Then the sign of the cross will be seen in the sky, and from the openings where the hands and the feet of the savior were nailed will come forth great lights which will light up the earth for a period of time. This will take place shortly before the last day." (St. Faustina Diary 83)
